MEMBERSHIP OF KENNINGTON PARK COMMUNITY CENTRE COMMUNITY BENEFIT SOCIETY

1. Community Benefit Society

KPCC Community Benefit Society has been established to include a wide membership from the local community and from a broader base of individuals and organisations who support the objects of the Society.

2. The Rules of the Society with reference to Membership

The Rules of the KPCC Community Benefit Society state:

The Society shall be owned and controlled by its Members on a fair and equitable basis.

The Board may at its discretion admit to membership any individual, corporate body or nominee of an unincorporated body, firm or partnership who supports the objects of the Society and who has paid or agreed to pay any subscription or other sum due in respect of membership for the time being in force.

3. Involvement of Members in control of the Society

KPCC Community Benefit Society is required to hold an Annual General Meeting to which all shareholding members are invited. Members are therefore involved in the governance of the Society by participating in the Annual General Meeting and exercising a vote on the key, strategic issues affecting the Society. Items for discussion and decision at the Annual General Meeting include the following:

- Annual Report to the Members from Directors (Trustees)
- Annual Accounts: the receipt of the accounts and balance sheet (including Auditor's report as necessary)
- The appointment of an Auditor, if required
- The election of the Board (or the results of the election if held previously by ballot)
- The transaction of any other business included in the notice convening the meeting.

4. Shares with reference to Shareholding Membership

The Rules of the Society state:

The shares of the Society shall be of the nominal value of £1 issued to persons upon admission to membership of the Society.

Each Member shall hold one share only in the Society

Shareholding membership is designed to evidence that Members have a stake in the Society represented by payment of the nominal fee of £1 for the share in the Society.

It should be noted that the Rules specify a 'nominal' fee and shareholding membership does not require a physical payment.
